

Please keep the Morse Code requirement of at least 5 words per minute as a requirement for ALL amateur radio licenses. Proficiency with the Morse Code at least at 5 wpm keeps the simplest method of communication open for most any amateur radio operator. All other modes require relatively complicated and sometimes expensive apparatus. CW is often the only method of communication simple and efficient for emergency communications.